

SURVEY OF TOURISM MANAGEMENT ALUMNI

Execution time

The survey was conducted in 2022 in the spring semester.

Purpose

Survey of Alumni 6 month after completing studies.

Short presentation of the questionnaire

The survey consists out of 10 questions. The average of the evaluations was calculated by analyzing the results. In the survey participated 10 Alumni.

Presentation of survey results:

60% of the respondents answered, that are working in the field of the study programme; 25% have a high qualification needed job; 15% have a low qualification needed job. 100% of the respondents do work at the enterprise in the private sector; 20% of the respondents are continuing the studies; 10% are volunteering. 60% of the respondents answered, that were working during the studies; 10% - were employed within one month after graduation, 30% - within three months after graduation. 80% - work in Vilnius, 20% are employed abroad. 80% of the respondents have declared that the job profile matches the completed studies. 80% answered – that studies met the expectations; Acquired knowledge and skills are applicable in the job market; The practice activities during the studies were beneficial; It was easy to find a job after completing the studies. Respondents noted, that they would like to improve their work skills with constantly changing reservation systems. Graduates have noticed that establishing themselves in the labor market is influenced by both: preparation in higher education institution and personal characteristics.

Positive

Statements:

1. Majority of the respondents work in the field of the study programme;
2. Part of the respondents are continuing the studies at other HEI;
3. Graduated successfully establish themselves in both: Lithuanian and foreign labor markets.

To be improved

Statements:

1. Respondents would like to improve their work skills with constantly changing reservation systems;
2. 15% of the respondents have a low qualification needed job

What's next?

The results of the survey were discussed with the members of the Tourism Department, possible changes and the strengthening of the professional guidance were foreseen.